To search for specific names, type keywords into the search bar in your PDF reader. If a keyword search doesn't turn up expected results, it is recommended that you also scroll down into the alphabetical listings to search for the name, as the text-recognition software is not perfect.

The table of contents below can also give you an idea of where to look within the document for other kinds of information listed in the directory, like street guides, government listings, and advertisement indices. Note that the PDF page number and the original directory page numbers are different, because the color-printed advertisement pages in the directories were not numbered.

Table of Contents:

PREFACE.

---

For Brooklyn, "the tide of Empire" is Eastward. Not only is the business center moving Eastward from the City Hall, but this year the city boundary line has been extended three miles towards the rising sun—and now embraces the entire town of New Lots—the most of which was formerly East New York. This annexation took place just in time to be included in this issue of our City Directory. We have canvassed the entire town, and the names from the new ward will be found in their appropriate alphabetical places.

By reason of the twelve numerical streets, which were renamed, but not renumbered, there has been additional work and care bestowed by us to make locations on those streets intelligent to the public. It is only regretted that the new numbers were not in time for this edition.

For the past seven years the price of our Directory has been $5.50. During this period the increase of names has amounted to the enormous number of 50,321. For this large addition to the expense of the work our city does not give patronage in proportion, but we were determined to have the Directory first-class in all respects, and are therefore obliged to make the price Six Dollars per copy.

This is but a slight advance when the immense addition to cost is considered, and we confidently believe that our patrons, rejoicing in this careful exhibit of Brooklyn's prosperity, will appreciate and prefer our painstaking and thorough work at the advanced price.

We call attention to our new map showing the recent annexation of New Lots—forming an additional ward—the 26th.

Believing that a reliable Directory is of more practical benefit than even the local census, we consider it would be for the good of the general public if a law were enacted making it a misdemeanor for any one to refuse his name for the Directory.

This volume contains 175,761 names, an increase over last year of 12,827. From New Lots, the 26th Ward, we obtained 4000, making a net increase for Brooklyn of 8827 names.

According to the ratio of names in Directory and former Census returns, we estimate the present population of Brooklyn to be 768,075.

BROOKLYN, June, 1886.

BATES & JOHNSON,

Successors to WYLLYS H. WARNER,

Steam Heating Apparatus,

114 LEONARD ST., NEW YORK.

NO OFFICE IN BROOKLYN.

TELEPHONE CALL, MURRAY 407.

The attention of architects and owners of buildings, and the trade generally, is directed to our specialties for warming buildings by steam and especially to our house-heating boilers and automatic regulating apparatus.

We are prepared to furnish experienced men to erect apparatus in any part of the United States, and to do work of any description where steam is used for heating, either with high or low pressure, or for power.

Parties wishing our estimate of cost, and specifications for work, should, if possible, furnish a tracing of the plans of the building to be heated, stating the height of each story, and the height in the cellar available to set a boiler, the point of the compass to which the building faces, and the material of which it is constructed, the range of the thermometer in winter, and such general information as may influence the temperature of the building. When not convenient to furnish tracing of plans, send the accurate dimensions of apartments to be heated.

Also state the dimensions of the chimney flue to be used for the boiler.

[Also see next page.]

Address all communications to 114 LEONARD STREET, NEW YORK.

VERTICAL STEEL PLATES

Used in the Axle Beds of all our Trotting and Road Wagons:

NEW YORK, June 1st, 1871.

GENTLEMEN:—I have carefully examined your Patent Vertical Steel Plate Axle. I find that the addition of the Vertical Plate renders the Axle about two and a half ( $2\frac{1}{2}$ ) times as stiff as it would be without it.

Very respectfully,

GEO. B. McCLELLAN.

"No abler paper is published on this continent. It is a credit to its conductors, a blessing to the community among whom it circulates; as Catholics we are proud of THE CATHOLIC REVIEW."—Montreal True Witness.

That quotation expresses the universal opinion entertained by all competent critics, of the great Brooklyn family Catholic newspaper

"THE CATHOLIC REVIEW."

This well known Brooklyn enterprise enters now on a new career of usefulness and prosperity, having during the past year acquired a valuable corner property on Pearl Street and Gothic Alley, near Concord Street, adjacent to the Brooklyn Bridge, the New Post Office, St. James' Cathedral and the great Dry Goods Houses, a site that promises soon to be in the very center of the business world of Brooklyn. Its Gothic Tower is visible from the Bridge, City Hall, "and all points of vantage."

Here it has established what is planned to be one of the completest Newspaper and Book Establishments in America.

"THE CATHOLIC REVIEW" BUILDING,
218 and 220 Pearl St., and Gothic Alley, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Fifteen years ago THE CATHOLIC REVIEW was founded in Brooklyn by the favor of the Vicar-General of the Diocese, Very Rev. Father John F. Turner. Placed under competent journalistic and business talent, it at once attained success. From Brooklyn, recommended by a formal letter of Bishop Loughlin, its work and fame made the circuit of the world, everywhere recognized as worthy of the third city of America, and as one of the ablest and handsomest papers published in the English language.

The Cardinal Archbishop of New York, Archbishop Corrigan, the Archbishops of Philadelphia, Boston, Cincinnati, etc., all repeated and strengthened Bishop Loughlin's favor and approval. The Holy Father, Pope Pius IX, blessed it more than once; the present Pope, Leo XIII, twice by Pontifical letters under the Seal of the Fisherman, praised its conductors for their services to the Catholic cause.

That blessing, Leo XIII again repeated in 1886, when a prominent priest of Brooklyn visited him in the Vatican, Rome.

Nor is it in the Catholic fold alone that THE CATHOLIC REVIEW has won honor and popularity. The chief Secular and Protestant papers have largely recognized its power and ability.

Some reasons why judicious advertisers should remember this prosperous and influential paper in making up their lists are given in the next page.

PRUDENT ADVERTISERS

Who seek to place their advertisements where they will do the most good, know that the greater the success, the higher the character, the wider the reputation and influence of a journal, and the greater the numbers of the people whom it addresses, the more likely is their advertisement in it to bring them a return.

Judged by that rule, THE CATHOLIC REVIEW of Brooklyn, has already secured the best advertising patronage given to any Catholic paper in America.

First, it is a great and successful organ of public opinion, and a first-class newspaper in every sense, and is so acknowledged by all the great papers of America.

"The wide-awake CATHOLIC REVIEW."—N. Y. Herald.

"The best and best informed Catholic paper of America."—N. Y. World.

"Catholic in both senses of that word."—N. Y. Christian Advocate.

"The best type of of Catholic weeklies."—N. Y. Graphic.

"Edited with care and ability."—N. Y. Tribune.

"The best Catholic paper in the country."—Boston Traveler.

"One of the ablest papers which we receive.—No paper which we see betrays a wider reading and a more careful study of the organs of Protestant thought."—Boston Congregationalist.

Second, it has a large, prosperous and daily increasing audience.

In Brooklyn alone it specially addresses the largest and most compact as well as a generous section of the religious community.

HERE ARE THE FACTS.

EVERY THIRD OR FOURTH man, woman and child that you meet in the great City of Brooklyn is a member of the Catholic Church! Within the lifetime of the first Bishop of Brooklyn, and mostly under his rule, this marvelous community has been organized here. We now number over 250,000 Catholics, for whom there are 130 churches attended by 164 priests; we have 2 colleges, 16 academies, 45 parish schools—in Brooklyn City alone we teach 20,443 pupils—16 asylums, and 4 hospitals.

Do You Appreciate the Significant Lesson of These Figures?

The trade of that great, numerous, prosperous, intelligent and generous people is worth looking for!

"How and Where Shall We Win It?"

The best way to reach Catholics is through their principal paper. Experience has shown that the weekly religious press is the surest and cheapest mode of reaching the families most likely to buy.

Dailies are chiefly read for their news. Numbers of our business men who have to use them will not admit them into their households, for obvious reasons. Even their shape and blanketlike unwieldy form prevent advertisements being seen, without a painful search which few make.

If you want a Catholic medium widely circulated, taken, read and preserved by numbers of the best families in Brooklyn and Long Island, by the Bishop, Clergy, Schools, Convents and Institutions, use THE CATHOLIC REVIEW, 65 Court Street, Brooklyn.

The only Catholic weekly commended by the Bishop of Brooklyn is THE CATHOLIC REVIEW, a fact that speaks volumes for its excellence as a Catholic newspaper.

The form of THE CATHOLIC REVIEW, a 16 pp. and 24 pp. octavo, is admirably suited to display advertisements. Rates are exceedingly reasonable. Drop a card to our nearest office—in the Western District to 65 Court Street; in the Eastern District to 88 Broadway, E. D., or 340 Manhattan Avenue, Greenpoint, and a member of our staff will call on you for your business.

We can be of benefit to business men who use our columns. We are anxious to secure, and then retain by benefitting, only the best advertisers.

AFTER ONE YEAR.

[From Brooklyn Union, April 6, 1886.]

A year ago to-day the UNION made its first appearance as an eight-page newspaper. The wisdom of the change has been sufficiently justified by its results. No reader accustomed to the handling of a sheet compact in form, legible in type, and conveniently cut and pasted, is likely ever to take up one of the old-fashioned blanket sheets without protest, or to doubt that the movement in evening journalism begun by the UNION is certain to become universal. The absolute novelty of the UNION printing machine has not been without its drawbacks. Up to the date of starting this machine in the UNION press-room it had been stoutly maintained by experienced printers that it was impossible to print direct from type 24,000 perfected copies of an eight-page paper per hour. We have been able to demonstrate that it is possible to do so day after day, and that at the end of a year the smoothness and accuracy of the working of the press are much greater than at the beginning. We have had occasionally to apologize for delays, and frequently to send out editions that were typographically below the standard which our readers had a right to expect. But taking into account the absolutely unique character of the printing machinery of the UNION, the results of the year have been as satisfactory to us as they have been creditable to Messrs. R. Hoe & Co., its inventors and constructors.

But last year's history of the UNION has been something more than a mechanical triumph. It has proved what is being demonstrated in a variety of ways that Brooklyn people are ready to appreciate enterprise and to support it. Within forty-eight hours of the first issue of the eight-page UNION we had evidence that the transformation thus effected placed this journal "in the ranks of the most valuable and most enduring newspaper properties in the country." We believe that fact has since become as obvious to the casual observer as it was to us on the 8th of April last. The UNION daily addresses a public of whose character and numbers it has just cause to be proud. Its development is in the line of that of Brooklyn, and the enlargement of its influence proceeds with the same surety and rapidity which characterize the growth of a public sentiment in favor of honest politics and responsible administration of public trusts. The UNION is, by general consent, the best newspaper published in Brooklyn, and that is a distinction which it could not have attained without the reconstruction of its mechanical department, of which we have to record the first year's results. It has an easy superiority over its contemporaries, in its readiness for any emergency requiring "extra" issues, and it has an evident fitness to be a welcome guest in every family circle of this City of Homes. It has no enemies whose hostility is not a compliment to it, and its friends are as ardent as they are numerous. It owes a good deal to the activity of both, and would like to thank the one class no less heartily than the other, while wishing for both unimpaired vigor and untiring devotion to the cause of honest, independent and progressive journalism.

THE CATHOLIC REVIEW OF BROOKLYN

Is the foremost Catholic paper published in America.

It is recommended to the Catholics of Brooklyn by Bishop Loughlin. Advertisers will find it an admirable medium to reach the 300,000 Catholics of Brooklyn and Long Island. Our business manager will call. Specimens will be sent on application by postal card to our Western Office at 65 Court St., 218 & 220 Pearl St., or to our E. D. offices at 88 Broadway, E. D., and 340 Manhattan Ave., Greenpoint, N. Y.

The Largest, the Ablest, the Best Religious and Family Weekly Newspaper in the World.

J. N. HALLOCK, Editor and Proprietor, 216 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

$3.00 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE.

PROSPECTUS FOR 1886.

THE CHRISTIAN AT WORK

having attained by its intrinsic merits alone an enviable position and a circulation unparalleled in its history, has also lately added to its own circulation the entire list of THE CONTINENT. We hope with these additions to MORE THAN MAINTAIN the high character it has attained as an eminently PURE, INSTRUCTIVE, AND USEFUL JOURNAL. The liberal support received during the past year places the paper in a most prosperous condition, and the results of its popularity and success, with the power and influence derived from long experience and well directed enterprise, gives a paper with

NO SUPERIOR IN ITS SPHERE.

Always Outspoken, Non-Sectarian, Independent, and Progressive, THE CHRISTIAN AT WORK long since achieved a high reputation among the right-thinking and advanced members of various denominations for its ability as an exponent and in imparting sound instruction; its freedom from cant, bickering, and bigotry; and the unusual versatility displayed in

THE ABLEST OF EDITORIALS,

As well as for the superiority of its News, Church, Home, and other interesting and important departments.

THE MODEL RELIGIOUS AND FAMILY NEWSPAPER.

While continuing Non-Sectarian and Independent, THE CHRISTIAN AT WORK will earnestly advocate all the essential tenets of Evangelical Religion, and aim to advocate moral, mental, and physical progress and improvement throughout the country and the world. As a pure, high-toned, instructive, and entertaining Family Journal, it will zealously labor to promote the best interests of the many thousands comprising its large and widely extended parish of readers. Judiciously employing only the

BEST TALENT IN THE LAND,

And having made the most complete arrangements for issuing its large editions in superior style, THE CHRISTIAN AT WORK will, during the year ensuing, manifest decided progress and improvement in both CONTENTS AND APPEARANCE. Discussing all appropriate topics with ability and fairness, furnishing an unusual variety of interesting reading for the Home Circle, and sparing neither effort nor expense to make both the matter and manner of its pages complete and acceptable—we confidently hope to render this, not only the largest and ablest, but in every sense the very
